Description:	Keeping in mind to protect and safeguard our children, Samata Degree college planned a special program on "Good touch and Bad touch" for the students of grade IV and V in APS school. The main purpose was to bring awareness for their well-being through this session. The demonstration conducted gave clear picture among the students. They learn and understood the difference between safe touch and unsafe touch. They learn to handle strangers and say NO when they are in unsafe hands and seek help by shouting out loud. The practical presentation also helped the children to recognize, feel safe and protect themselves against such unhealthy environment from an early age. Totally 24 students participated.

Description:	As part of its commitment to community service and social responsibility, Samata Degree College organized a National Service Scheme (NSS) Special Cleaning Program. The initiative aimed to contribute to a cleaner and healthier community while instilling a sense of civic responsibility among college students. Students and faculty engaged in targeted cleaning activities, including litter removal, graffiti removal, and general beautification of public spaces. The NSS Special Cleaning Program demonstrated the institution's commitment to community service and environmental stewardship. By actively involving students in the improvement of local public spaces, the program contributed to a cleaner and more vibrant community. Totally 42 students participated.
