PROGRAM REPORT

Program Name	A session on "SELF DEFENCE TECHNIQUES FOR WOMEN"
Resource Person	Mr. Rama krishna, Physical Director, Samata college Ph no: 9908424231 Email id:Ramakrishna_pd@gmail.com
Duration of Activity	1hour
Organized by	Samata Degree College
Venue	Seminar Hall-1
No of students attended	25

OBJECTIVES OF THE PROGRAM:

The objectives include "Develop and implement a self-defense program for women aimed at empowering participants with practical skills, confidence, and situational awareness to protect themselves from potential threats, enhance personal safety, and assert boundaries effectively."

LEARNING OUTCOMES:

Master basic self-defense techniques, including striking, blocking, and evasion maneuvers, tailored to women's physical capabilities and common attack scenarios. Develop situational awareness skills to identify potential threats, assess risk factors, and choose appropriate responses to ensure personal safety. Enhance confidence and assertiveness in setting boundaries, saying no, and communicating assertively in potentially dangerous situations. Learn effective strategies for de-escalating conflicts, diffusing tense situations, and avoiding physical confrontations whenever possible. Understand the legal and ethical implications of self-defense actions, including when the use of force is justified and the importance of seeking help from authorities when necessary.

PROGRAM REPORT

Program Name	A Session on "AWARENESS OF LEGAL RIGHTS FOR WOMEN"
Resource Person	Mrs. Saraswathi Latha, Vice President of Advocate bar council. Ph No: 9494740949 Email id:slathavpbarcouncil@gmail.com
Duration of Activity	1 hour
Organized by	Samata Degree College
Venue	Seminar Hall-1
No of students attended	25

OBJECTIVES OF THE PROGRAM:

The objectives include educating participants about the legal rights and protections available to women under national and international laws, including constitutional guarantees, anti-discrimination legislation, and human rights conventions. It aims to provide information on key legal instruments and mechanisms for protecting and promoting women's rights, such as domestic violence laws, sexual harassment policies, family law reforms, and gender-sensitive legal aid services.

LEARNING OUTCOMES:

The learning outcomes include awareness about the specific legal issues and challenges faced by women, including gender-based violence, discrimination in education, employment, and healthcare, reproductive rights, property rights, and access to justice. It provides practical guidance on recognizing and responding to gender-based violence and discrimination, including strategies for documenting evidence, seeking protection orders, and accessing emergency support and shelter services.

OBJECTIVES OF THE PROGRAM:

The objectives of this program include educating the participants about the importance of teaching children about personal boundaries, body autonomy, and consent from an early age, and to provide guidance on age-appropriate ways to discuss these topics with children.

LEARNING OUTCOMES:

The learning outcomes include awareness among students about the concepts of "goodtouch" and "bad touch" and their significance in recognizing and preventing child sexual abuse and exploitation. It empowers students with knowledge and skills to identify signs of inappropriate touching or behaviour in children, including changes in behaviour, sudden mood swings, withdrawal, or reluctance to be around certain individuals.

PROGRAM REPORT

Program Name	A workshop on 'Self Defence for Women'.
Resource Person	Miss Tanmayee, Voluntary from a NGO Ph No: 9985780808 Email id: tanmayee_2k@gmail.com
Duration of Activity	1 hour
Organized by	Samata Degree College
Venue	Seminar Hall-1
No of students attended	25

OBJECTIVES OF THE PROGRAM:

The objectives include addressing common myths and misconceptions about self-defence, including victim-blaming attitudes and stereotypes, and to promote a survivor-cantered approach that prioritizes safety, autonomy, and self-determination. It aims to promote empowerment and resilience among participants through assertiveness training, boundary-setting exercises, and role-playing scenarios that simulate real-life self-defence situations.

LEARNING OUTCOMES:

The learning outcomes include awareness about common safety risks and vulnerabilities faced by women, such as street harassment, physical assault, domestic violence, and sexual assault, and to equip participants with tools and resources for staying safe and seeking help when needed.
